Come Chould be Acted over again inforced had been taken choose that the same should be Acted over again inforced by their but choose that the same sound as a Warning to Posterity, usberein their East that it should Remain as a Warning to Posterity, usberein their East that it should remain Glory to God, and taking the due shame that it should Remain as God, and taking the due shame to then they have seen a Biggord to then w to sum up all in a few words, we have seen a Biggotted Zeal a most Bloody rage, not against Fremics, or Irreligious Profit a most Bloody rage, and to view) against as Vertuous and Religions Profiles. left behind them in this Country, which have suffered as Evilar extent of rigour, not that so high a Character is due to all that sur Testimony of Vile Varlets as not only were known before, but have by testimony of the Manifest Lives, Whordoms, Incest, &c. The Acceptance by their Manifest Lives, Whordoms, Incest, &c. The Acceptance spectral Sight, being the chief Evidence against those that Sufferi spectral Signs, verse upheld by both Magistrates and Ministers, so long as A n the they could defend neither the Dostrine, nor the Prassice, in such a publick manner as the case Requires, testified agains bt upon the whole Country, to the Indangering the future welfair breous Blood that has been by the same means shed, by Heather hemselves, whose deeds they have so far justified, occasioning the as a Naturall effect thereof, to the great Increase of Atheim. more Wonders of the Invisible World, I received of a Gentleman, as to the Letters, they are for Substance the same I sent, tho with n naming him. It is great Pity the matters of Fest, and industry e, my other occasions Will not admit any further Scriting hou n New-England, Aug. 11 1697.

PART

Nother Brand plucked out of the Burning, or, More Wonders of the Invisible World; Written by Mr C. M. relating to the Afflictions of Margaret Rule.

PART II.

Letter to Mr. C. M. containing a Narrative of two Visits given by him and others to Margaret Rule. With a repetition of a former Letter sent to him, to offer a Meeting with time they could not but be sensible what a Stain and loging as also the repetition of a former Letter, requesting Information in some Do-Strinalls relating to Witchcraft. other places, induced by their Example; if not, to an intailing of Letter of Mr. C. M. wherein he declines Speaking to those Dostrinalls; Denying some parts of the Narrative, and defending others. The feeling the Imp owned, &c. lasphemy of the Name of God, Scandalizing the Heathen, harm the Copy of a Paper Subscribed by several, testifying Margaret Rules being held up by Invisible Hands from the Bed. nclude only with acquainting the Reader that of these Collection A Letter to Mr. C. M. relating to the Narrative, again Praying, an An-Swer to the Doctrinalls. p. 23 or and communicated it to use, with his express consent, of what The Copy of a paper showing what Sense the Indians had of the Actions here, and what esteem they had thereby taken up of our Ministers. r Addition. Touching the two Letters from a Gentleman at MA Letter to Mr. C. M. again repeating Several Fundamental Dostrinalls, firmation or Confutation thereof acquired Indements, but others not Appearing, I have insome Answer about Doctrinalls) several Passages queed in his promise, viz. To give an Answer about Doctrinalls) several Passages quoted in his, and his Relations Books, that need explaining Po 27 A Letter to Mr. B, relating to the belief of Mr. C. M. which he forbad to be Coppyed.